How to get to Landshut?

Landshut is situated ca. 70 km northeast of Munich in the heart of Europe. It can be easily reached from everywhere.

By car:

- You reach Landshut via motorway A92. From there it is only a 5 km distance to the Conference site and hotels.

By plane:

- Munich International Airport (MUC) is Germany's second largest Airport.
- It offers many direct connections from all over the world. The distance from "MUC" to Landshut is only 45 km. A shuttle bus runs every hour.

By Train:

- Landshut central station is served more than once an hour from Munich, Freising and Regensburg. Both cities are connected to the German High Speed Network (ICE).

How to get to Landshut (LA) from Munich Airport (MUC)?

1. by "Airport Line" (direct shuttle to LA):

- Using the "Airport Line" is the easiest way to get from MUC to LA and would be our first recommendation.
- This line starts at MUC "Central Area" (basement floor, look out for the bus stop no. 6 "Landshut") and arrives in LA in approx. 40 min.
- You can buy the tickets inside the bus directly from the driver.
- The round trip costs 22,50 EUR/person (one way is 13 EUR/person).
- The bus runs every hour (e.g. 08:05, 09:05, 10:05... until 23:15)
- Please refer to the following link for the bus timetable (topic "Rückfahrten täglich" starting station "Munich Airport Center")
